TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

In the Fall of 1974 Joe Hunter, his wife Jan and his two children Joey and Julie began coming to Trinity Cathedral. Their desire to grow in the Lord resulted in their joining our church in July of 1975 and becoming very active.

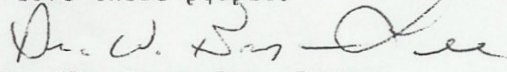

Joe having several years experience as a trucker became very concerned about a ministry to truckers. He first began by witnessing to truckers by C B and along the highways where God would direct him to many truckers often desperate to find the answers to their problems.

This ministry was so blessed by the Lord that Joe was licensed as a lay minister in 1978 and ordained by Trinity Cathedral, August 17, 1980.

In March of 1981 Joe and Jan organized their Truck Stop Ministries and have been well received by several truck stops, one near Trinity, Truck Stops of America, where they have a special room for ministry each week.

I've been a Pastor and close friend for eleven years to these dedicated people and have watched them come thru the testings that come to those who dedicate themselves to the service of our Lord, yet they continue to overcome thru Christ's strength.

I highly respect and greatly love these people.
